MODIFIED TEMPORARY ANTI-STALKING ORDER

Upon consideration of the petition filed in this case, the Court finds that the safety or welfare of Petitioner and/or Petitioner's household member(s) and/or Petitioner's animal(s) is immediately endangered by Respondent pursuant to D.C. Code §16-1063(d) (2021). IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that Respondent shall observe the following conditions:

- ☒ Respondent shall NOT commit or threaten to commit any criminal offenses against Petitioner or other individuals specified in the order:
- ☒ Respondent shall stay at least 100 yards away from Petitioner's ☒ person ☒ home ☒ workplace ☒ vehicle ☐ children's school/day care ☐ animal _____ ☐ other _____
- ☒ Respondent shall not contact Petitioner in any manner, including but not limited to: ☒ by telephone ☒ in writing ☒ electronic or social media ☒ any other manner, either directly or through a third party,
- ☐ Respondent shall relinquish possession or use of the following personal property that is owned jointly by the parties or by the Petitioner individually: _____
- ☐ Respondent shall stay away from and refrain from possessing, controlling, harming, threatening to harm, or otherwise dispose of Petitioner's animal: _____
- ☐ The Police Authorities shall stand by to: ☐ prevent violence while the Respondent / Petitioner retrieves their personal property;
☐ assist with service of process upon the Respondent and complete the Return of Service forms.
- ☐ Respondent shall relinquish possession of any firearms or ammunition and is prohibited from having possession or control of, purchasing, or receiving any firearm or ammunition while this order is in effect.
- Other: To save the District of Columbia's stalking statute from unconstitutionality, the D.C. Court of Appeals interprets the statute to mean that, when speech is at issue, the statute covers only speech that fits within the well-defined and narrowly limited classes of speech, the prevention and punishment of which have never been thought to raise any Constitutional problem. See Mashaud v. Boone, 295 A.3d 1139, 1144 (D.C. 2023) (internal citation and quotations omitted). That includes threats, obscenity, defamation, fraud, incitement, and speech integral to criminal conduct. Outside of those narrow categories, speech is constitutionally protected activity that the statute does not apply to. *Id.
